MULTIPLE REPRESENTATION: The Landlord hereby acknowledges that the Listing Brokerage may be entering into or proposes to enter into tenant representation agreements with tenants who may be interested in leasing the Landlord's Property and requires the Landlord's consent to represent more than one client in the same trade. In the event that the Listing Brokerage has entered into or enters into a tenant representation agreement with a prospective tenant for the Landlord's Property, the Brokerage requires the Landlord's written consent to represent both the Landlord and the tenant for the transaction at the earliest practicable opportunity and in all cases prior to any offer to lease being submitted or conveyed.

The Landlord understands and acknowledges that the Listing Brokerage must be impartial when representing both the Landlord and the tenant and equally protect the interests of the Landlord and tenant. The Landlord understands and acknowledges that when representing both the Landlord and the tenant, the Listing Brokerage shall have a duty of full disclosure to both the Landlord and the tenant.

However, the Landlord further understands and acknowledges that the Listing Brokerage shall not disclose:

- that the Landlord may or will accept less than the listed price, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the Landlord;
- that the tenant may or will pay more than the offered price, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the tenant;
- the motivation of or personal information about the Landlord or tenant, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the party to which the information applies or unless failure to disclose would constitute fraudulent, unlawful or unethical practice;
- the price the tenant should offer or the price the Landlord should accept; and
- the Listing Brokerage shall not disclose to the tenant the terms of any other offer, unless otherwise directed in writing by the Landlord.

However, it is understood that factual market information about comparable properties and information known to the Listing Brokerage concerning potential uses for the property will be disclosed to both Landlord and tenant to assist them to come to their own conclusions.

The Brokerage shall not be appointed or authorized to be agent for either the Landlord or the tenant for the purpose of giving and receiving notices where the Brokerage represents both the Landlord and the tenant (multiple representation).
